Decorate a mantle, table or buffet with this colorful antique planter. Sculpted in Normandy, France circa 1920, and rectangular in shape, the ceramic jardiniere stands on small feet and is dressed with side handles; it features a playful bombe and serpentine shape throughout, decorated with hand painted foliage and cornucopia motifs. Dominated by shades of blue, white, mustard and orange, the decorative ceramic dish is in excellent condition with rich and vivid colors. Markings on the bottom for further authentication. 10"W x 4.5"D x 3.25"H
