Place this elegant antique corner table, or encoignure, in a living room, hallway, or bedroom for a refined French accent. Crafted in France circa 1920, the Louis XV style piece is built of walnut and features a shaped triangular top designed to fit neatly into a corner. The façade is gently curved and fitted with a single drawer, adorned with a simple round pull, while the scalloped apron below is decorated with a delicate central shell carving.

The table stands on three graceful cabriole legs, lending a light and airy silhouette typical of the Louis XV aesthetic. The warm walnut surface showcases a rich and luminous patina, highlighting the natural grain and subtle tonal variations of the wood. The restrained ornamentation and elegant proportions make this antique piece both functional and highly decorative.

The antique side table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and presents a beautifully aged walnut finish. Ideal as a bedside table, occasional table, or accent piece in a corner, it brings timeless French charm to both traditional and transitional interiors.
