Decorate an outdoor patio or porch with this elegant antique bistrot table. Crafted in France circa 1930, the cast iron table sits on a trestle base with elegant scroll legs, and joined together with a double decorative crossed stretcher. The table base is dressed with the original large race track shaped white and gray marble top. The classic French table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a weathered white painted finish. Versatile, this oval bistrot table could be used as a small breakfast room, or outside in a garden to provide extra surface space. The table is signed on the inside post "Lafa Aurillac, France" for further authentication. Few small chips on the marble (see detailed images).
