Place this tall, elegant copper boot stand at your front door or in your mudroom to catch loose canes and umbrellas. Crafted in France, circa 1920 and made of copper and brass, the large shoe is in the shape of a musketeer boot decorated with a spur behind the heel. The elongated boot is further embellished with repousse lace and strap decor on the sides. The whimsical, Renaissance style stand is in excellent condition and has a rich polished and patinated finish. Measures: 16"W x 7"D x 22"H.
