Decorate a study or office with this elegant antique sculpture. Crafted in France circa 1930, the decorative piece depicts a finely detailed horse head resting on an integral square base. The sculptor captured the noble and attentive expression of the animal, with beautifully defined mane, ears, and bridle, evoking the refined artistry of early 20th-century French metalwork. The equestrian bust is made of solid iron and finished with a rich polished black and silver patina, enhancing its texture and depth. Sturdy and well-balanced, this piece is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use. A sophisticated addition to any interior, this striking horse head sculpture would complement a library, study, or gentleman's office with timeless style and strength. Weight 36 pounds Measures: 11" W × 5" D × 16" H.
