Place this tall, elegant copper boot stand at your front door or in your mudroom to catch loose canes and umbrellas. Crafted in France, circa 1920, the large shoe is in the shape of a musketeer boot decorated with a spur behind the heel. The elongated boot is embellished with repousse foliage decor throughout the sides. The whimsical, Renaissance style stand is in excellent condition and has a rich polished and patinated finish. Measures: 12" W x 7" D x 24" H.
