This elegant, antique Gothic pedestal table was crafted in Southern France, circa 1920. The intricate martini table features a forged central pedestal stem embellished with a spun knob over turned decor, with three curved legs ending with flat feet. The serving table is topped with a flat round surface with a small lip around the edge. The chic, sophisticated side table is in excellent condition and has a richly polished black and silver iron finish. This versatile gueridon would be a wonderful small occasional table in any style room. Measures: 15.5" diameter, 25.5" height.
