This antique carved fruit wood and brass hall tree was crafted in France, circa 1920. Standing on a wide tripod three curved legs ending with scrolled acanthus leaf motifs feet, the tall rack features a barley twist spiral central stem. The top embellished with a decorative central finial, is dressed with a swivel four double-arms hat and coat hooks, further decorated with belt hooks. The elegant hat and coat hanger is in excellent condition with a rich walnut patina and gilt finish. Place this free standing hall tree in an entry way or use it in a master bathroom to hang jackets, pants or belts! Measures: 19.75" W x 19.75" D x 67.5" H.
