Decorate a wall with this elegant floral still life presented in a carved and painted frame with gilt accents. The composition depicts a lush arrangement of white dogwood blossoms and vibrant blue hydrangeas displayed in ceramic vessels atop a polished tabletop, accented by a draped fabric and soft atmospheric background. The delicate palette of whites, blues, greens, and warm earth tones creates a tranquil and timeless decorative statement suitable for both traditional and French-inspired interiors.

The artwork is signed in the lower left corner by the artist, A. D. Greer (1904-1998), one of Texas' most recognized painters. Aubrey Dale Greer earned national acclaim for his luminous landscapes of the American West, Texas Hill Country, Yosemite, and the Grand Canyon. In addition to his celebrated landscapes, Greer produced floral still lifes admired for their romantic character, soft coloration, and realistic detail. His works remain highly collectible and are represented in numerous private and public collections throughout Texas and the Southwest.

The composition exhibits the artist's characteristic sensitivity to color and light, with the dogwood blossoms and hydrangeas rendered in a graceful and harmonious arrangement.

The painting is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns soft pastel colors. It is wired and ready to hang.
