Elevate your garden or interior with this elegant handcrafted Anduze-style bowl planter by La Madeleine. Made in southern France, the planter showcases the iconic wide-rimmed silhouette rooted in 18th-century Provencal tradition, with a generous flared lip, rounded footed base, and signature decorative motifs including raised medallions and garland swags in bold relief. Finished in a soft cream wash with subtle green and terracotta undertones, the vessel exhibits an aged weathered patina that lends it the charm and character of antique gardenware. The hand-applied glaze and distressed surface evoke the timeworn beauty of classical French pottery. The planter is signed “La Madeleine Anduze” and features a drainage hole at the base for functional planting. In excellent condition commensurate with age and artisanal craftsmanship, this sculpture is ideal for flanking an entryway, anchoring a terrace, or adding historical Provençal flair to a sunroom or formal garden. The timeless design blends effortlessly into traditional, Mediterranean, or French country settings. Measures: 32.25"Diameter x 24.5"H
