This French "Table de Boucher" (butcher table, or pastry table) would add the ideal amount of surface space to any kitchen. Crafted in France, the iron work table features a scalloped apron with intricate metal work, beautiful scrolled legs and decorative polished brass mounts and finials. The table is dressed a white marble top embellished with a carved groove around the perimeter, which was once used to catch blood as the butcher was carving meat. The pastry table is in excellent condition with a rich antique patinated white painted finish. Use this piece as a kitchen island, a wall console in an entry way, or even outside on a patio. Measures: 41.25" L x 26.25" W x 29.75" H.
