Crafted in Turkey in the late 20th century, this large hand-knotted wool rug showcases the refined elegance of the Oushak weaving tradition. Measuring 164 inches long by 119 inches wide, the carpet features a warm ivory field adorned with an allover arrangement of stylized floral medallions, palmettes, and leafy tendrils in muted shades of sage, slate blue, taupe, and terracotta. A bold rust-toned main border, richly decorated with scrolling botanical motifs, is framed by narrow guard borders in soft beige and pale grey, providing a balanced and harmonious composition. Woven from high-quality wool using the traditional Turkish knot, the rug offers a dense, durable pile with a soft underfoot feel. Its generous size makes it ideal for anchoring a formal living room, dining area, or grand entryway, while the understated palette allows for seamless integration into both classic and transitional interiors. In excellent condition, with vivid coloration and crisp pattern detail, this versatile late 20th century Turkish Oushak-style rug brings warmth, sophistication, and timeless charm to any setting.
