Bring classic French café charm to any interior with this elegant forged bistrot table crafted in France circa 1980. The round top is carved from natural limestone with a subtly molded edge, offering a warm, chalky patina reminiscent of older provincial garden tables. Resting on a hand-forged wrought iron base, the tripod frame features hammered texture throughout, graceful outward-curving legs, and decorative scroll supports directly beneath the stone. A central iron stretcher ring provides visual balance and added stability. This refined piece evokes the spirit of an earlier period and blends beautifully with rustic, modern, and transitional settings alike. The table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and it reads as a timeless vintage accent with the presence of an antique. Dimensions: 28.5" diameter × 26.5" height.
