Decorate a master bedroom with this exquisite antique oversized headboard. Crafted in France circa 1780 out of a retired iron and bronze gate or balcony, the Louis XVI-style frame features two main parts; the top is arched, with bronze Fleur-de-Lys, ribbon, and acanthus leaf decor. A center medallion is crafted of forged iron and surrounded by bronze blue bell flowers. The bottom of the headboard, which is thickly padded and comfortably tufted with red upholstered fabric, allowing comfortable reclining. Weighing over 200 lbs and measuring wider than a California King, this majestic piece, in excellent condition, and would make a grand statement in any master or guest bedroom. A true one of a kind! (The piece is at the client's house, and not visible in our showroom). Measures: 120.5" W x 94" H.
