This elegant antique chest was crafted in Bordeaux, France, circa 1760. Called "Commode Tombeau" in French, the cabinet stands on escargot feet over a scalloped apron; it features three reverse curved drawers across the front dressed with the original bronze handles and matching escutcheons; the chest is further embellished with serpentine sides decorated with recessed panels. The bombe commode is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a deep and rich walnut patina; place this commode in a living room, entryway or bedroom. Measures: 48" W x 25" D x 33" H.
