Dress an entryway or hall way with this elegant, antique console. Crafted in France, circa 1820, the simple, narrow, fruit wood table stands on four turned legs embellished with a bottom stretcher. The table features two drawers across the front with original hardware, and is topped with a long and narrow surface from a later addition. This traditional Empire style side table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich walnut patinated finish. Versatile, this practical table piece could be placed in a living room for extra display space under a mirror or work of art, or in a den or game room to hold a large screen TV. Measures: 58" W x 19.5" D x 31.5" H.
