This handsome Louis Philippe antique chest of drawers was crafted in walnut circa 1860, and features richly figured burl walnut throughout the drawer fronts. The rectangular case is fitted with five drawers, including a discreet lower drawer integrated into the base molding, a thoughtful and refined feature that enhances both functionality and visual balance. Each drawer is adorned with decorative brass handles and matching escutcheons, complementing the warm tones of the walnut and adding subtle ornamentation. The chest showcases wonderful rich patinated walnut finish with a striking visual pattern across the façade. In excellent condition with wear commensurate with age and use, this antique piece reflects the quality craftsmanship and understated elegance characteristic of Louis Philippe furniture from the period. Versatile in scale and presentation, this antique French chest would serve beautifully in a bedroom, dressing room, or entry hall, offering generous storage and timeless European character. Measures: 50" W x 23.75" D x 36.75" H.
