Decorate a dining or living room with this elegant antique buffet! Crafted in France, circa 1850 and built of elm wood, the eight-leg cabinet stands on bun feet over a thick straight plinth apron. The rectangular case cabinet is fitted with three ogee curved frieze drawers across the front, over four doors with recessed panels, all opening to inside center shelving. The long buffet is in excellent condition commensurate with use and age, with clean and traditional lines, and adorns a rich light walnut patina. Use this long Period Louis Philippe enfilade as a useful and practical serving piece in a dining room! All five keys included. Measures: 79.5" W x 25" D x 39" H.
