Elevate a room with this elegant antique wall mirror crafted in France, circa 1860. The tall rectangular form is set within a finely carved giltwood frame, decorated with delicate floral and foliate motifs throughout. The corners are richly embellished with sculptural bouquets, while the inner molding features subtle engraved detailing, adding depth and refinement to the composition. The clean symmetry and restrained ornament reflect the Louis XVI aesthetic, offering a refined balance between structure and decoration. The original mercury glass retains a soft, slightly mottled reflection that enhances its authenticity and period character, while the giltwood frame displays a warm, time-softened patina. Versatile and almost five and 1/2 feet in height, this mirror can be displayed either vertically or horizontally, making it ideal over a mantel, console, or commode, or mounted in an entry or dressing area as a floor mirror, to bring light and visual interest to the space. The back retains its traditional wood panel construction consistent with the period. The large mirror is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use. Dimensions: 38.25"W x 3"D x 65.25"H
