Place this elegant, Louis XV carved side table next to a sofa or between two armchairs in a living room. Crafted in Provence circa 1960, the midcentury end table sits on four cabriole legs, and features exquisite carvings throughout. The scalloped apron is decorated with hand carved shell and geometric motifs. There are acanthus leaves at the shoulders, and the top has a beautiful parquetry inlaid decor. The small, delicate table is in excellent condition with a rich walnut patina.
