This elegant copper silver plated epergne was created in England, circa 1960. The antique centerpiece stands on rounded feet over a bottom dome decorated with intricate motifs. The dish with two arms features a large center cut crystal bowl and two smaller coupes held over the side arms. This intricate cut-glass piece is traditionally used to hold flowers or fruits on a large dining room table or other surface. The complete center piece is in excellent condition and adorns a rich patinated silvered finish. Measures: 19" W x 9" D x 18.5" H.
