Bring sculptural French elegance to an entryway, hallway, living room, or dining room with this handsome vintage console table. Crafted in France circa 1970, the piece is veneered in beautifully figured burl elm, showcasing dramatic swirling grain, distinctive burl eyes, and warm golden honey tones beneath a lustrous lacquered finish.

The rectangular top is supported by an eye-catching pedestal base composed of four gracefully curved panels that intersect to create a refined hourglass silhouette. Resting on a molded plinth base, the sculptural form provides exceptional stability while lending the console a light, architectural presence. The elegant curves and use of burl elm recall the refined furniture of the Art Deco period, interpreted through the clean lines and sophisticated aesthetic of Mid-Century Modern design.

Finished on all four sides, the console is equally suited for placement in an entry foyer, behind a sofa, along a hallway wall, or as a freestanding accent in an open floor plan. Its narrow profile makes it particularly versatile while allowing the exceptional veneer to be appreciated from every angle.

The console table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorns a rich polished burl elm finish with beautiful natural figuring and color throughout.
