Add a refined decorative accent to a study, music room, or living space with this elegant French music stand, crafted circa 1950. The piece features a classic lyre-form book rest, a timeless symbol of music, with scrolled arms and vertical string elements supporting a pierced brass ledge designed to hold sheet music or a book.
The stand is constructed with a slender, fixed shaft raised on a richly cast base with scrolled feet and acanthus motifs, providing both stability and visual presence. The warm brass finish has developed a soft, time-mellowed patina, enhancing its vintage character.
This vintage music stand is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with light surface wear and oxidation consistent with its age. Both decorative and functional, it makes a sculptural statement in any interior.
