Classic French barware with a clean mid-century profile, this vintage champagne bucket was made for the renowned Champagne house Canard-Duchêne. Crafted in France circa 1950, the cylindrical cooler is made of lightweight polished aluminum and decorated with fine horizontal bands around the body.

The front retains its original black Canard-Duchêne Champagne label, accented in green and white, giving the piece a distinctive graphic presence. Two small side handles are shaped with fan-like detailing and secured to the body with riveted mounts, while the slightly flared rim makes the bucket easy to handle and gives the otherwise simple form an elegant finish.

Perfect for chilling a bottle of Champagne or wine, the cooler would also make a stylish addition to a home bar, wine room, or entertaining setting. The vintage champagne bucket is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with light surface wear and minor marks consistent with its utilitarian purpose.
