Crafted in the Pyrenees mountains of France half a century ago with 18th and 19th century old timber, the elegant six foot round table stands on a sturdy four hand turned columns pedestal base, supported by flat, hand carved feet for ultimate stability. The intricate top features a parquet and geometric decor made with antique walnut, burl wood and acacia, and is embellished with a two-tone star motif in the center. The table is in excellent condition with wonderful character, a rich walnut patina, and a nicely distressed finish. This large fruitwood table suitable for eight to ten people, would make an impressive addition to any dining room or breakfast room. Measures: 70" diameter 30" height.
