Decorate a table in your breakfast nook or entry way by filling this elegant, vintage vase with a bouquet of fresh flowers. Crafted in France, circa 1950, the tall, Art Deco glass vase is hand blown for a unique, organic shape with a wide oval mouth at the top. The vessel has a soft, clear color palette that will serve as the perfect accent color in an otherwise neutral, traditional home. The piece is in excellent condition and ready for immediate use. Measures: 9.75" W x 7" D x 12" H.
