Crafted in France circa 1960, this elegant mid-century bar cart features a gilt-brass faux bamboo frame and beautifully polished mahogany tiers. The upper tier holds a removable glass tray with pierced gallery surround, perfect for serving cocktails or hors d'oeuvres. Below, a wide lower shelf incorporates a small medial glass-topped shelf and a three-bottle rack for secure storage and display. The cart rests on large spoked wheels at the rear and swiveling casters at the front, allowing smooth mobility across a room. The warm brass finish, faux bamboo detailing, and rich wood grain lend the piece timeless sophistication, making it a standout addition to both modern and traditional interiors. In excellent condition commensurate with age and use, this versatile antique service trolley is both decorative and functional, ideal for stylish entertaining. Measures: 32" W x 18" D x 27.75" H.
