Decorate a bathroom, dressing room, or bedroom with this elegant antique French oil on canvas by Albert Genta, painted in Paris circa 1950. The composition depicts a seated female nude viewed from the back, rendered with soft, fluid brushwork and a refined sense of light across the figure. The artist contrasts the delicate, warm flesh tones with a vibrant, painterly background of layered color, creating depth and movement in a distinctly Impressionist manner. The work is set in its original carved wood frame with a light, textured finish that complements the palette and enhances its decorative presence.

Signed "A. Genta" in the lower right corner, the painting is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with well-preserved surface and rich coloration. Albert Genta, listed in Benezit, was known for his expressive female figures and atmospheric compositions, making this a strong and collectible example of his work.
