This elegant vintage French bar cart, crafted circa 1950, showcases refined mid-century design in a warm gilt-brass finish. The two-tier trolley features inset glass shelves framed by delicate pierced galleries, offering both function and lightness. The gracefully curved supports are accented with sculptural rope-twist mounts at the center, adding a subtle neoclassical touch. Raised on two large spoked rear wheels with rubber trim and two front swivel casters, the cart moves easily while maintaining a clean, balanced silhouette. The frame retains a rich, aged patina consistent with vintage use.

Originally fitted with a bottle holder, now absent, the simplified design enhances its versatility as a drinks trolley, tea cart, or decorative serving piece. Excellent condition commensurate with age and use.
