Decorate a restaurant, bakery, or culinary space with this charming mid-century French display chef sculpture. Crafted circa 1960, the figure depicts a cheerful baker holding a cake in one hand and a chalkboard menu sign in the other, capturing the playful spirit of traditional French food shops and cafés. The sculpture is hand-modeled in composition and finished with richly detailed hand-painted polychrome decoration, showcasing expressive facial features, carefully modeled garments, and vibrant colors that bring the figure to life. The surface displays gentle wear consistent with age, enhancing its authentic vintage character without detracting from its strong visual presence. Designed as a decorative display piece, this sculptural figure makes a striking focal point in a storefront, dining room, kitchen, or commercial interior. The chef is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and remains sturdy and visually impactful. Dimensions: 12"W x 10.5"D x 25"H
