This handsome Louis XIII style side table was crafted in France circa 1960 and reflects the enduring appeal of traditional French furniture forms reinterpreted in the mid century period. The solid oak table features a rectangular top with a warm, rich patina and visible grain that adds depth and character. Beneath the top sits a single drawer, beautifully carved with stylized floral rosettes and geometric motifs, retaining its original iron pull and lock escutcheon. The table stands on turned baluster legs joined by a shaped stretcher base, providing excellent stability while reinforcing the classic Louis XIII silhouette. Additional carved detailing on the apron and legs highlights the quality of the craftsmanship and gives the piece a refined yet rustic presence. This antique style table is both decorative and functional, ideal as a side table, lamp table, or accent piece in a living room, bedroom, or study, and it pairs effortlessly with both traditional and transitional interiors. The table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with a beautifully aged walnut finish throughout. Dimensions: 21.25"W x 17.75"D x 24"H
