Crafted in France circa 1960, the elegant fruit wood "Semainier" stands on cabriole legs ending with front bronze sabots, over a scalloped apron decorated with a center bronze mount. The chest features inlaid marquetry floral motifs throughout, decorated with bronze mounts along the sides. The cabinet is fitted with seven serpentine drawers embellished with foliage decor, and dressed with ornate handles and matching escutcheons. Both sides have curved lines decorated with inlay marquetry motifs, and the top is dressed with a shaped variegated beige marble surface. The antique cabinet is in excellent condition and adorns a rich walnut patina. Place this tall multi-drawer chest in your bedroom or bathroom for extra storage! Key included.

A Semainier is a tall, narrow chest of drawers. The traditional storage unit typically has seven drawers, which can be used to organize a week's supply of lingerie, shirts, etc...
