This elegant antique French piano bench was crafted in the mid-century period, circa 1950, and executed in the Louis XV style, showcasing graceful cabriole legs, flowing lines, and refined carved detailing. Constructed of solid walnut, the bench displays a warm and rich patina that enhances the natural grain and emphasizes the sculptural quality of the frame. The shaped apron is centered by a carved floral reserve with scrolling foliage, a decorative motif inspired by classic Louis XV design. The generously padded seat is upholstered in a floral tapestry-style fabric with soft pink, green, and neutral tones, secured with traditional brass nailhead trim. Gently curved arms at either end provide visual balance and subtle support, giving the bench both decorative appeal and practical versatility. This antique piano bench is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with light wear consistent with its antique nature. It is ideal for use at a piano, vanity, or dressing table, and also works beautifully as an accent bench at the foot of a bed or in a hallway, offering timeless French elegance with mid-century craftsmanship.
