Add French elegance and comfort to a study, vanity, or writing desk with this antique-style Louis XV chair. Crafted in France circa 1950, the walnut chair features the graceful lines and refined proportions associated with the Louis XV period, interpreted through the high-quality craftsmanship of the Mid-Century era.
The frame is richly carved with scrolling shell motifs across the serpentine apron and acanthus-carved knees that flow into elegant cabriole legs ending in scrolled feet. The shaped seat and tall arched back are upholstered in a tailored geometric fabric in warm brown, caramel, and cream tones, accented with decorative brass nailhead trim. The upholstery remains clean and well-presented, complementing the warm walnut patina beautifully.
Compact in scale yet highly decorative, this Mid-Century French Louis XV chair is ideal as a desk chair, occasional side chair, bedroom accent, or additional dining seat. It is sturdy, comfortable, and versatile, blending effortlessly into both traditional and transitional interiors.
The chair is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with a rich walnut patina and strong, stable construction throughout.
