Bring classic French elegance into your home with this beautifully crafted vintage demilune commode. Made in Paris, France, circa 1960, the Louis XVI style chest is constructed of walnut and richly decorated with intricate geometric marquetry, parquetry inlay, and finely detailed gilt bronze mounts.

The half-moon cabinet stands on four tapered legs embellished with bronze collars and ending in decorative brass sabot feet. The gracefully curved facade features three central drawers, each fitted with circular brass pulls, flanked by two rounded cabinet doors with ornate escutcheons and interior shelving. The upper frieze is decorated with a continuous band of circular inlaid medallions, while the lower drawers and side doors showcase elaborate diamond-pattern marquetry in contrasting wood tones. Additional bronze mounts accent the vertical supports, and a decorative gilt bronze ornament embellishes the shaped apron beneath the central drawers.

The commode is crowned with its original shaped marble top, featuring beautiful beige, cream, and warm golden veining. The polished stone complements the rich walnut finish and refined neoclassical proportions.

The vintage chest is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with a beautiful French-polished patina. Three keys are included. The back bears the maker's stamp, "GRL Selection Meubles." Versatile and decorative, this elegant cabinet would be ideal in an entryway, living room, bedroom, or powder room.
