Decorate a den or a living room with this elegant antique cocktail table. Crafted in Vallauris, southern France circa 1950, the low table stands on a forged wrought iron trestle base. The rectangular top, signed by the artist J.G. Picard, is built with an oak frame; the surface features a large center faience plaque decorated with bird and floral motifs, and surrounded with colorful ceramic tiles. The vintage low table is in excellent condition and adorns wonderful and rich colors. A wonderful size for any den or game room. 50.25"W x 26.75"D x 20.75"H
