Crafted in France circa 1950, this elegant antique-style oval side table combines refined Louis XV design with beautiful marquetry craftsmanship. Built of walnut with contrasting wood inlays, the table stands on four gracefully curved cabriole legs embellished with decorative gilt bronze mounts at the shoulders and bronze sabots at the feet. The warm walnut finish highlights the delicate proportions and elegant lines of this French occasional table.

The oval top is fitted with a richly veined beige marble surface displaying soft cream, ochre, and rose tones. A pierced brass gallery with an intricate interlocking circular design surrounds the marble, adding an elegant decorative touch. The shaped apron features geometric marquetry with diamond-shaped inlays and fine crosshatched detailing. A convenient front drawer, fitted with a decorative brass knob, provides discreet storage for small essentials.

The lower oval shelf is similarly decorated with geometric marquetry and finished with a brass gallery band, providing additional display space for books or decorative accessories. The combination of fine inlay work, ornate bronze mounts, and richly figured marble gives the piece a sophisticated appearance.

The table is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, retaining a beautiful walnut patina throughout. Perfect beside a sofa, between two chairs, or as an elegant bedside table, this versatile French piece brings timeless Louis XV character to both traditional and contemporary interiors.
