Crafted in Italy circa 1960, this vintage Venetian wall mirror features an oval beveled plate framed by individually shaped sections of mirrored glass. Hand-etched sprays of blossoms, buds, and leaves follow the curve of the frame, with larger floral motifs spaced around the border. Scalloped edges catch the light, while small applied glass ornaments punctuate the frame at the top, bottom, and sides.

An elaborate openwork crest crowns the mirror. Shaped glass leaves and opposing scrolls sweep down over the shoulders of the oval, framing a heart-shaped mirrored cartouche etched with a delicate floral bouquet. Small clear glass rosettes accent the crest and pick up the light along its beveled edges. The reverse is fitted with a black wooden backing and a metal hanging ring for vertical display.

The Italian mirror is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with minor surface wear and light age-related spotting to the glass. Its tall, narrow proportions make it well suited to a powder room vanity or a narrow entry console, where the crest has room to stand out.

Dimensions: 24”W x 42”H.
