Decorate a powder room, a study or a den with this elegant pair of antique paintings. Hand painted in France circa 1920 and signed by the artist, F. Blanco, each colorful artwork on board is set in a carved giltwood frame and represent the winter and the spring. Both subject matters depict a village scene with people walking on the street beside a church and an old structure. Both paintings are in excellent condition with wonderful colors. 12"W x 9.5"H
