This beautiful pair of antique carved figurines was created in Italy, circa 1780. The figurative sculptures depict two young boys standing on carved gilt bases with their hands raised. Both of the wooden sculptures have their original painted and polychrome finish and some gilt detailing. These figures are in excellent condition overall, and could be displayed as is on a mantel or console, or could make wonderful lamp bases as well! Measures: 10" W x 7" D x 21" H. SKU: 132-226
