Bring timeless French style to a bedroom with this elegant pair of antique Louis Philippe bedside cabinets, crafted circa 1870. Each nightstand features a rectangular gray marble top with molded edge, set above a single frieze drawer adorned with decorative brass pulls. Below, a paneled door opens to reveal a spacious interior compartment, ideal for storing bedside essentials. Constructed from richly grained mahogany, the cabinets rest on shaped plinth bases ending in turned bun feet, lending a balanced and classic profile. The warm, honey-brown finish enhances the natural beauty of the wood and pairs beautifully with the cool, veined marble tops. Inside, the drawers are lined with charming blue-and-white floral paper, adding a subtle decorative touch. Sturdy and in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, this pair would make refined nightstands for a master suite or serve as chic side cabinets in a living room, library, or hallway. Dimensions: 36.5" H x 18" W x 14.25" D
