Elevate your space with this elegant pair of antique French consoles. Crafted circa 1870 in the Louis XV style from repurposed balcony grilles, the wrought iron bases feature intricate hand-forged scrollwork, stylized acanthus flourishes, trellis motifs, and central rococo-inspired sunburst medallions, all finished in a dark green patina with traces of natural age and oxidation. Each console is crowned with a newly added white marble top showcasing soft grey veining and a clean, squared edge. The refined interplay between organic ironwork and crisp marble evokes the exuberance of the Louis XV aesthetic while offering timeless versatility. Measuring 74.25 inches wide by 14.5 inches deep and 39 inches high, these consoles are well-suited for both interior and exterior use. Ideal for framing a grand entryway, flanking French doors, or accenting a garden loggia. Excellent condition commensurate with age and use. A one-of-a-kind!
