Decorate an entry or man's study with this elegant pair of wall sconces. Forged in France circa 1860, each fixture with twisted arm features three lights newly wired and dressed with decorative candle sleeve covers. Both lights are decorated with eagle motifs and embellished with a hand painted crest in the middle. The tall Gothic style sconces are in excellent condition and adorn a rich patinated rust finish associated with a colorful center coat of arm. A wonderful addition on both sides of a mirror in a powder room, den or living room. 13"W x 19"H
