Complete your bedroom with this elegant pair of antique bedside cabinets; crafted in France, circa 1880, each matching cabinet with right and left door, stands on tapered fluted feet over a straight spine apron. The chest with spline columns on both sides, features a carved drawer across the front dressed with a metal pull over a long center door embellished with recessed panel and decorated with a carved diamond shape figure. The surface with recessed edge is dressed with a hand painted faux marble top. The Louis XVI style bedside tables are in excellent condition, commensurate with age and user, and adorns a rich textured patinated finish in the grey and white palette. The nightstands are finished on all four sides. Measures: 16.25" W x 15.5" D x 33.25" H.
