This elegant pair of antique French oval mirrors, crafted in the Louis XVI style circa 1880, offers refined symmetry and classical decorative appeal. Designed as a matching pair, each mirror features a delicately carved walnut frame with a warm and rich patina, highlighting the natural grain and depth of the wood. The oval surrounds are accented with finely carved linear moldings and subtle geometric detailing, lending a restrained neoclassical character. Each mirror is crowned with an intricately carved ribbon and floral crest, with flowing loops and stylized foliate elements that add height and sculptural presence without overwhelming the clean lines of the frame. The carving remains crisp and well defined, showcasing quality craftsmanship throughout. The backs are fitted with hanging hardware, making them ready for installation. This antique pair is in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, with beautifully preserved carving, consistent patina, and minor wear that contributes to their charm. Ideal for flanking a console, or doorway, they bring balance, warmth, and timeless French elegance to any interior. Dimensions: 19”W x 2”D x 26”H
