These large heavy antique trophy plaques were created in France, circa 1880. Set on oval walnut board, each wall hanging decor feature a detailed spelter carved bird in high relief, tied upside down to foliage embellishments with a rope at the base. The birds, a curlew and an outarde are rare hunt birds with beautiful plumage. The detailed bird figures panels are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, exquisitely carved and have a rich patinated painted finish. Add the Black Forest trophies to a wall in your ranch house or lodge for a true outdoor feel in a rustic style. Measures: 17.5" W x 6" D x 24.5" H.
