Stage your backyard or garden with this elegant pair of antique planters. Crafted in France circa 1850 and rectangular in shape, each jardinière stands on small feet decorated with acanthus leaf motifs at the shoulder, over a bombe and serpentine form body, embellished with weave decor in high relief throughout. The flowers pots are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorn a rich black and silver steel polished finish; a wonderful outdoor addition to any backyard or patio! All bottoms are pierced for water drainage. Measures: 24" W x 16" D x 13" H.
