This beautiful pair of antique, faience plates were crafted in Paris, France circa 1870. The hand-painted, cartouche-shaped plates can be hung on a wall, and each feature fishing scenes on the coast of Brittany. The ceramic platters have a subtle gold trim and are signed "Francis" on the front, with stamp on the bottom that reads: Martin Paris Grenelle. Both of the porcelain pieces are in excellent condition and have wonderful details and rich, neutral colors throughout. Measure: Diameter 12". SKU: 53-462
