Decorate a mantel or a console with this important pair of antique Sèvres urns. Created in Paris, France circa 1890, each elegant vase sits on a square gilt bronze base with cut corners. The large porcelain vase is decorated with a hand painted medallion with neoclassical figures, gilt scrolling borders and have a signature Sèvres royal blue background. Both stately, colorful vessels are further embellished with a pierced brass mount at the neck, and dressed with an attached lid decorated with a bronze top finial. The tall decorative urns are in excellent condition commensurate with age and use, and adorn rich colors with gold leaf accents. 10" Diameter 21" High
