Decorate a kitchen wall or an office with this elegant pair of antique paintings; crafted in England, circa 1880, each artwork is set in the original carved oak and gilt frame; each painting depicts a pastoral countryside scene in the fall and winter with farmhouse, animated with peasant and foliage. Both subject matters are signed in the lower left corner by the artist, but unreadable. The paintings are in excellent condition, with rich colors. Wire in the back for easy installation. 21.5"W x 17.5"H.
